Harvest Fest

What an exciting time was had at SLBC's Harvest Festival. Travis and Amy Burleigh led the way for a fun-filled evening that gave a great opportunity for SLBC and it's people to shine Jesus' light to our community.

It was encouraging to see so many people attend that were not from SLBC, because that was a goal of the evening. Families came and participated in games, contests, eating, face painting and more. Who knows what conversation was had, what act of kindness was seen that may have caused someone to ask themselves "What was so special about those people...that place?" Of course we know that this place alone is not special, nor the people alone. It is the light of Jesus that shines in this place and through the people that can offer answers, encouragement,, love and all the spiritual blessings in Jesus Christ!

So thank YOU for your involvement by supplying candy, props, your time, your skill, etc. Thank you, Travis and Amy, for taking a desire of yours and making it happen.

This may just be one of "those times" where fruit may not be seen here on earth...but perhaps the fruit will be seen in the form of a soul who because of a Harvest Fest was urged to seek God and as they did they found Him!

TALENT NIGHT IS HERE!!!!

November 20, 2010 is the day of an event at SLBC that has become a highly anticipated one. It is our annual Talent Night for all ages and you will not want to miss it.

Not sure what part you can have in the night? Well here are some ideas from previous years...skits/drama (funny or serious), joke-telling, poetry reading, instrumental, singing, sharing a craft, juggling, art...just to name a few. I am sure many of us can find a spot somewhere in that list and we would love to see some new ideas this year!

It is also very important to have people there to support the many talented people who will be sharing that night. So, put on a smile and your fun cap and get involved. This is one of those "the more the merrier" nights for sure!!

Here at South Lewiston we believe a truth based, relational and God-focused fellowship is what we and our community need today. If you do not presently have a home church to call your own, we invite you to consider being a part of SLBC. I trust that while you worship with us, you will see what the Lord Jesus Christ had in mind when He died for His church and what we have in mind in telling all we can about His love and grace.

THIS MONTH

NOVEMBER 14, 2010

SLBC Morning Worship Service will be a special time with our special guests, The Hyssongs. It will be a time of great encouragement and praise through music and testimony and we look forward to what God will do in our midst!

NOVEMBER 21, 2010

SLBC Gives Thanks

SLBC Morning Worship Service will be a time for us to give thanks to our Creator for the many blessings He has given. It will be a special time of music and testimony as we spend time reflecting on some of the many things God has done for us.

Please help us out by sharing with us your Thanksgiving reflection. There are slips to write it out on or simply take any piece of paper and write what that something is that you have a heart overflowing with Thanksgiving for. Please then return to the church and give to the Connection Corner, Pastor Church or Sarah Pomerleau.

Looking forward to blessing His name together!
